Also on May 4, 2000, Judge Bernstein of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York entered an order authorizing the Debtors to Employ Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business (the "Order"). The Order, among other things, authorizes the Debtors to pay compensation and reimburse expenses, postpetition, of the listed professionals. The Order also provides the Debtors the right to supplement the list of ordinary course professionals from time to time as the need arises, and file such supplemental lists with the Bankruptcy Court and serve the same on the entities specified in the Order. The Order further provides that if no objections are filed within 15 days after service, the list would be approved by the Bankruptcy Court without the need for a hearing.
